Dear Parishioners,

Recently, the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, with the approval of Pope Francis, has issued an instruction regarding cremation. Here is a summary of this instruction.

It is recommended that the bodies of the deceased be buried in cemeteries or other sacred places. Burial of the dead is a corporal work of mercy. By so doing, we confirm our faith in the resurrection of the body and we acknowledge the dignity that should be given to the human body. Although the Church prefers burial of the body, cremation is permitted. Respect must always be given to the wishes of the deceased.

When cremation has been chosen, the ashes must be laid to rest with respect in a sacred place and may not be divided, for example, among family members. Furthermore, the scattering of ashes in the air, on land or in the sea is not permitted, nor is the preservation of ashes in mementos, pieces of jewelry, or other objects allowed.

The instruction concludes by saying that, when the deceased has notoriously requested cremation and the scattering of his/her ashes for reasons that are contrary to the Christian faith, a Christian burial must be denied.

To view the full text of this instruction, see the link on our parish web site (www.pothe.org).

Thanks, Fr. Peter

Advent is coming!

Make this Advent different from others. Keep a sense of faith and spirituality of the season by joining a Small Faith Sharing Group.

Our parish is inviting all parishioners to make this Advent differ from all others. In the busyness of the season, we encourage everyone to take some time to reflect on the Scripture readings for Sunday Mass that mark this season of preparation for Christmas. Keep the faith of the season and join a small group or start one with a group of friends to prepare for the celebration of the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

AROUND OUR PARISH

Friendship House

Many thanks to parishioners for your usual generous contributions to our November meal for the men at Friendship House. For main dishes there was macaroni/cheese, meatloaf/potatoes/carrots, and pasta/tomato/cheese. Vegetables and sides/extras included broccoli and zucchini casseroles and farmers' market veggies and cider.

People also donated homemade cookies, paper goods, many toiletries, and some excess Halloween treats. Thanks to all.

Deborah Nicklas @ 781-4362

St.Vincent de Paul Clothing Program

Wow! And Thank You! The clothing donations have been terrific-- we are making daily deliveries of your very generous contributions. The weather certainly has changed and your thoughtful consideration of jackets, hats, socks, mittens, heavy pants, shoes and boots are most welcomed.

God Bless you. We thank you, Jack Mullin

Cumberland/Falmouth Food Pantries

The pantries are humming and keeping the shelves stocked is of major concern! Thanks to your generosity and understanding of the needs of a family in need the volunteers know that they can depend on the deliveries from Holy Martyrs as the cornerstone to successfully fulfill the food products and essentials. Praise the Lord and keep passing the food along to our neighbors in need of our help. Jack Mullin
